DEAN SEARCH COMMITTEE NEWS

Dean candidate Steven Goldberg, Associate Dean at the University of Minnesota Law School, is scheduled to meet with students on Monday, October 21, from 3-4:30 p.m., in room 504. All interested students are invited to attend. The SBA has a copy of Dean Goldberg's resume.

VOLUNTEER INCOME TAX ASSISTANCE

Students, staff, and faculty members interested in volunteering for the VITA Program, Volunteer Income Tax Assistance, should attend an introductory meeting on October 17, at 12 noon, in room 502. Volunteers will receive a self-taught training packet and important general information. Please try to attend.

If you are unable to attend the meeting, please contact Michael Ferrell, Linda Guettinger, or Shawn Soderberg, by leaving a note in their respective mailboxes.

VITA assistance will be provided at the Law School on Saturdays, beginning in February. The program is designed to help low income, elderly, non-English speaking, and handicapped taxpayers. In addition to preparing tax returns, volunteers will teach taxpayers how to prepare their own returns in the future.

GAY STUDENTS ASSOCIATION ELECTION

The Gay Students Association will hold an election this week for chairperson. Anyone interested should sign up at the SBA office by Wednesday, October 16. Voting will be at the SBA office on Thursday, October 17, and Friday, October 18. Anyone interested in joining the GSA should contact Rick Clyne or Steve Crandall.

INTERNATIONAL LAW SOCIETY MEETING

The International Law Society will be having a meeting on Tuesday, October 22. Ms. Barbara Eakin and Professor Newcity will be giving a lecture and a slide presentation on Ms. Eakin's recent trip to the Soviet Union. The focus of the presentation will be on the USSR's legal system. After the presentation, a vote on the by-laws will be taken. The meeting will begin at 12 noon, in room 505.

Also, the ILS would like to announce that it has a typewriter available for students to rent at a nominal fee of $5 per hour. Please inquire at the SBA office for additional information.

NEGOTIATION COMPETITION NEWS

All students interested in participating in the 1985 ABA Negotiation Competition should attend the organizational meeting on Tuesday, October 15, at 12 noon, in room 502. The in-house competition will be held on Saturday, November 2. The topic will be personal injury. All interested individuals are also urged to attend a lecture on negotiations by Professor Richardson on Monday, October 14, at 5 p.m., in room 502. The lecture will be video taped.

GRADUATION COMMITTEE MEETING

There will be a Graduation Committee meeting for Spring graduates this Thursday, at 5 p.m., in the Dean's Conference room, on the second floor. The agenda will include: 1. selection of general chairperson; 2. selection of sub-committees and heads; 3. results of advisory vote for speakers.

MORE NEWS FROM THE REGISTRAR

Another change in first-year exam schedule: Contracts A,B,C Advisory will be held Friday, December 20, at 6:30 p.m. This is the best we can do for those of you who relied on the December 20, published exam deadline date. Additionally, Property E will be held on Tuesday, December 17, at 6:30 p.m.

The exam schedule will be available on Friday, October 18. Those of you with conflicts should not panic—but should go to the third floor Faculty Secretarial Office, request a reschedule form, and schedule an alternate exam date. For your information, during the spring examination period, we have more time so exams are more spread out.

A tentative Spring schedule will be released soon...watch the PR for more details. May grads: come in and fill out a Diploma Request Form. I am organizing Spring registration, so if you have comments, send them on in.

—Eva Wescott,
Registrar
